on Tuesday 25th April 2023 at 4pm

1.	Attendance: Chair Alison Melvin, Cllr Geoff Clarke, Cllr Val Moynan, Cllr Graham Jones, Clerk Lisa Spindler
2.	Declarations of Interests: Councillors are reminded of their responsibility to declare any disclosable pecuniary interest which they may have in any item of business on the agenda no later than when that item is reached. 3. 23/244	Co-option - Welcome back Cllr Jones! Sadly, his witness did not live in the Parish, so his election forms were not accepted by EHDC, Clerk offered at District to witness on behalf of Cllr Jones, but they would not have it. Hence having to call an extraordinary meeting to co-opt Cllr Jones back on the Council.
4. 23/245	HR - Clerk has resigned, Lisa was employed to work part time (contracted hours 25) but feels the job is becoming more full time. Decision made to start looking for a new Clerk. Lisa is confident that all systems and processes are now in good order. As many projects have come to an end, she feels it is a good time to hand over to a new Clerk. Lisa said that she has enjoyed her time at Binsted and has made some lovely friends.
5. 23/246	Civility and Respect Pledge for decision – All agreed that having this pledge as a policy would benefit Binsted Parish, all our full council meetings are carried out in a civil manner respecting others points of view.
6.	The Chair thanked everyone for their time.
